Resolution No. 22-665

Title: Reappointments to the Lucas County Citizens Levy Review Committee

Department/Agency: Commissioners

Contact: Benjamin W. Pushka, Executive Assistant

Summary/Background: On May 3, 2005, Resolution 05-630 was adopted that created and appointed to the Lucas County Citizens Levy Review Committee. The purpose of the Citizen Levy Review Committee is to review levy requests presented to the Board of Lucas County Commissioners and to advise the Commissioners prior to the Board's vote to place any levy tax on the ballot. The Citizens Levy Review Committee is comprised of nine voting members who are appointed for three-year terms and from the following jurisdictions: Public Sector (1), Labor (1), Senior Citizen Community (1), Business Sector (1), Fiscal/Accounting Sector (1), Nonprofit Sector (1), and At-Large Seats (3).

On May 24 the Board of Lucas County Commissioners approved resolution 22-448 reappointing a number of members to the Lucas County Citizens Levy Review Committee. Due to a clerical error, Ms. Michelle Kilinger, representing the nonprofit sector, was not listed on resolution 22-448. Ms. Michelle Kilinger has been recommended for reappointment as the Nonprofit member of the Citizen Levy Review Committee. The aforementioned reappointments to the Citizens Levy Review Committee are for four-year terms to commence immediately and set to expire on May 31, 2026.
